Duration of a Wink.
The time occupied by the several phases of the movement has been measured, and it is found that the mean duration of the descent of the lid is from seventy-five to ninety-one-thousandths of a second.
The interval while the eye is shut was in one case only fifteen-hundredths of a second. The rising of the lid occupies seventeen-hundredths of a second. A specially arranged photographic apparatus was used. The popular phrase that something is done "quicker than a wink" is therefore expressive to a degree that may be stated in fractions of a second.—Washington Star.

A Queer Fish.

A male fish which hatches the young of its mate is the Chromis paterfamilias. It is found in the lake of Tiberias. Palestine. Strange to say, this industrious fish hatches its young in its mouth. When the female has spawned in the sand the male approaches and draws the eggs into his gills, where they remain until hatched, when they struggle out of their confinement into the parent's mouth. As many as 200 perfect young are sometimes found in the mouth of an adult male. How the fish manages to feed itself without swallowing its young is a mystery. The grown fish is about seven inches long and one and three-quarters wide. Its back is olive green, shot with blue, and the belly is silver white, marked with green and blue.

Reason For Complaint.

"I keep the best bread," said a certain baker the other day to a poor fellow who complained of the inferior quality of the article he had purchased or had the day before.

"I do not doubt it," replied the customer.

"Then why do you complain?" asked the baker.

"Because I would suggest that you see the best bread and keep the bad," was the reply.—Pittsburgh Telegraph

Some Evidence.

"You say that preparation will make the hair grow?" asked the thin haired man of the druggist.

"Why, say," came from the drug man. "I know a customer who took the cork out of a bottle of that stuff with his teeth, and now he's got a hair lip."—Yonkers Statesman

Part Often Overlooked.

"It is all right to put yourself on the back occasionally," said the dispenser of sage advice.

"Yes?" said the player up.

"But don't forget to call yourself down when you need it, my boy."—Pittsburgh Post

Treat For the Boarders.

"Ma," queried the small daughter of the boarding housekeeper, "what shall I do with these lasting threads?"

"Give them to me and I will stir them into the frosting for the coconut cake," said her mother.—Youth's Companion

Lively Cheese.

John—I'll bring you a fork, sir. The Customer—What for? John—The camembert, sir. The Customer—A fork's no good. Bring a revolver.—Exchange

D. K. PARROTT,

Why He Returned.

"Back home again, eh, doctor? What was the trouble? Too healthy for you out there?"

"Exactly. There was only one case of sickness in town the whole time I was there."

"And I suppose some other doctor had that?"

"No, I had it. It was homesteadness."—Boston Transcript

Really Antique.

An excellent plaster of paris cast may be seen in one of the Egyptian galleries of the British museum of the famous aycamore statuette known as the "Sheikh-el-Beled," or "Village Sheikh." The original dates from 3000 B. C. and is still in perfect condition although it is the oldest known specimen of woodcarving. It represents over a century of the workmen of the building the pyramids close to the town, where it was discovered. —London News
